Honors Day 2016

About the Speaker...

Coreen Jackson, Ph.D.

Dr. Coreen Jackson serves as President of the National Association of African American Honors Programs and is a dynamic leader, visionary, administrator, academician, author, ordained minister, Honors Director, First Lady, wife and mother. As a 16-year-old valedictorian and a native of Jamaica, she migrated to the United States on a full academic scholarship to pursue the bachelor's degree in Speech Communication at William Jewell College in Liberty, Missouri. Today, her life points to the awesome power of what God can do in the life of one who surrenders to His leadership and guidance. Dr. Jackson holds a master's degree from Brooklyn College in New York and a Ph.D. in Mass Communication from Howard University in Washington D.C. Her professional career includes being an instructor at Howard University, Director of Mass Media at Houston Baptist University, Assistant Professor of Broadcast Journalism at Middle Tennessee State University, a tenured Associate Professor at Tennessee State University, Director of the Honors Program, and recently, the Interim Dean of the Tennessee State University Honors College.

Dr. Jackson is known for her tenacity and her drive to transform programs and situations that seem impossible. She attributes her drive to God's leading and direction in her life. Her Doctoral dissertation was the impetus for social change in broadcasting in her island home, Jamaica. She convinced former TSU President, the late James A. Hefner, to allocate $1.5 million dollars to build the television station at Tennessee State University. Since assuming leadership of the Honors Program in 2013, she led the transition of the Honors Program at TSU to becoming an Honors College. In taking the reins of the National Association of African American Honors Programs, Dr. Jackson led the design of a new website for the organization, obtained the Articles of Incorporation, instituted sponsorships from major corporations and restored the vision and dreams of the NAAHP pioneers to be the organization it was created to be.

Dr. Jackson serves on numerous committees and boards, both nationally and locally. She was recently elected to serve on the Board of Directors of the National Collegiate Honors Council (NCHC) as well as its International Committee and Diversity Committee. She is the Co-Founder of the Nashville African American Healthy Marriage Initiative, and she is a reviewer for the Journal of Broadcasting & Electronic Media. Dr. Jackson has written, published and presented many scholarly papers. She has received many awards including the Presidential Fellowship Award and the Faculty Media Research Award.

Dr. Jackson travels throughout the United States and abroad with her husband of 22 years, Dr. Chris Jackson, conducting seminars, workshops and conferences on marriage through the Nashville Marriage Network. She resides in Nashville with her husband and their three sons: Joshua, Juleon and Jemiah.

ASU MARC Bridge Program

The ASU MARC to BRIDGE program is funded by the National Institutes of Health (NIH) to support students in Biology, Chemistry, Mathematics, and Computer Science (STEM majors). Meritorious students with aspiration to continue higher studies in biomedical sciences leading to the Ph. D. or M.D./Ph.D. degree receive the Maximizing Access to Research Careers (MARC) award at their junior year and continue in the program for 24 months. MARC scholars receive $1008 per month plus partial tuition, up to 60%, and additional travel funds to attend scientific meetings. Dr. Ashok Jain, Professor of Biology, is the MARC Program Director. Current MARC scholarship recipients are as follows:

Jaden Hunt, Major – Biology
Alexius Lampkin, Major – Chemistry & Forensic Science
Victoria Stephens, Major – Forensic Science
Cecil Daniel, Major – Biology
Taylor Wilson, Major – Biology
Amanda Holloman, Major – Computer Science

THE ALMA MATER

By Gladys Ward McCullough Sapp '46

Albany State, we dearly love you
Whose walls are inscribed with knowledge so true.
So solidly built on this foundation,
A union of work and inspiration.
Teacher for those who strive for success;
To thee we give praises above all the rest.

Thy jubilant colors of blue and gold
We'll ever honor, ever behold;
Thy name is an anchor upon life's sea,
And sailing, we put our trust in thee.
In thee, dear school, we see all the best;
To thee we give praises above all the rest.
